SBA Participates in “How to Overcome the Fear of Public Speaking” Lunch & Learn Session hosted by the Marion County Chamber of Commerce

FAIRMONT, WEST VIRGINIA — You probably aren’t afraid of ghosts or goblins, but does public speaking scare you? If so, join the Marion County Chamber of Commerce, SBA’s West Virginia District Office, and Impakt Marketing’s Luke Nessler, in Fairmont for a Lunch & Learn session on how to overcome your fear of public speaking! The event, hosted by the Marion County Chamber of Commerce, is Thursday, October 29, 2015 at 12:00 p.m., at Muriale’s Restaurant.

“From getting up in front of a large crowd, to giving your 30 second elevator pitch – small businesses need to be able professionally represent their small business,” states SBA’s West Virginia District Director, Karen Friel. “This Lunch and Learn session is a great opportunity for local small businesses to freshen up on effective public speaking.”

There is an attendance fee, contact the Marion County Chamber of Commerce at 304-363-0442 for more information and to register.
